Re: MUR 7059
Response is on behalf of SBTN

Dear General Counsel,

This letter is in response to Mr. Tu Nguyen's falsely alleged accusations against Saigon Broadcasting Television Network (SBTN). We give our condolences for Mr. Nguyen's tragedy. However, Mr. Nguyen's allegations against SBTN are unfounded.

Mr. Nguyen attempts to label Viet Tan as an illegal organization. Mr. Nguyen has failed to prove that Viet Tan is an illegal organization. The only country that treats the Viet Tan as an illegal organization is Vietnam because Viet Tan speaking out against the dictatorship communist government regime of Vietnam. After reviewing Mr. Nguyen's complaint, it is clear that he has a personal vendetta against the Viet Tan and attempts to drag SBTN into his unfounded allegations.

Mr. Nguyen had discussed the following: 1) alleged contributions to Representative Sanchez for the purposes of political influences; 3) connections between SBTN and Viet Tan; 4) and allegations of unreported revenues. Mr. Nguyen's allegations are convoluted, but this letter will attempt to respond to his allegations. Additionally, this letter will respond to his supplemental interrogation.

ALLEGED CONTRIBUTIONS TO REPRESENTATIVE SANCHEZ FOR THE PURPOSES OF POLITICAL INFLUENCES

Mr. Nguyen's allegations rest on theoretical convoluted connections between SBTN, and Viet

Tan. Then, Mr. Nguyen alleges on page 5 of his complaint that SBTN offered Representative Sanchez "'soft' contributions in the form of free airtime for her election campaigns, organized her campaign drives, and hosted fundraising events for her over the years." On the contrary, Representative Sanchez paid SBTN for airtime for her election. See Exhibit 1, a service agreement between Loretta Sanchez and SBTN.

Mr. Nguyen went on to more confusing allegations which has nothing to do with contributions nor accounting. Mr. Nguyen attempts to connect Lilly Nguyen to SBTN, who is not an employee of SBTN. Lilly Nguyen works for Congresswoman Sanchez and SBTN does connect with her to coordinate air time for Congresswoman Sanchez. Lilly Nguyen's actions as alleged by Mr. Nguyen, has no connection with SBTN or its business relationship with Congresswoman Sanchez.

Mr. Nguyen has failed to show that any action by SBTN for Representative Sanchez was improper. SBTN has supported many US representatives, US Senators, various organizations in the Vietnamese communities regarding Human Rights issues in Vietnam including Viet Tan, rather than just a sole individual or organization. Despite its support, it has never contributed money to any political party or political figures.

THERE ARE NO ILLEGAL CONNECTIONS BETWEEN SBTN AND VIET TAN

First, he assumed that Viet Tan is an illegal organization, which there is no proof. Then, in Mr. Nguyen's complaint, Mr. Nguyen implies a connection between SBTN and Viet Tan, because of certain events and employees. There is however, no evidence of any impropriety. Mr. Nguyen only cites an article about "The Front" which adds nothing more to his theory that SBTN is connected to Viet Tan (an alleged illegal organization). There are no officers in SBTN who are Viet Tan members. Viet Tan is not an illegal organization. (Repetition for emphasis.) SBTN is a television network that informs its audiences about issues in Vietnam and the Vietnamese communities. For this purpose, SBTN does associate with many public officials, Vietnamese communities, and organizations, including Viet Tan.

SUPPLEMENTAL ALLEGATIONS

After reviewing Mr. Tu Nguyen's supplemental allegations, he does not mention SBTN at all in it. Therefore, SBTN need not respond to Mr. Nguyen's supplemental allegations.

CONCLUSION

Mr. Nguyen forms his complaint by making conjectures that would try to lead the reader into thinking he has hard proof for his accusations of illegal activities. There are no illegal activities, associations or improper accounting. For the reasons stated above, this complaint has no merit against SBTN.

Sincerely yours,
DO PHU & ANH TUAN P.L.C.
